

'Tenei au. This is me, here I am'

Community forum for disabled people, whānau and community agencies

Come together as a community to explore the ways you can make the most of the opportunities that the EGL principles and approach offer.

We will support you to have these conversations, strengthen voices and create change as a community.

'Tenei au. This is me, here I am' is a way for you to lead the changes you want to see in your area.
